WORK OF TWO ROBBERS

They Try Unsuccessfully to Hold Up John Harrington on Eleventh East.

Last evening two men attempted to hold up John Harrington, a 14-year-old boy residing at 1308 Lincoln avenue. Near the corner of Eleventh East and Emerson avenue Harrington was met by two men who separated as he drew near them. One pointed a gun at him. He was frightened and yelled at the top of his voice. At this the hold-ups ran southward on Eleventh East, escaping before persons attracted by the boy's yelling had arrived. Later Officers B. Smoot and Geo. Coulam, with Detective G. Chase, made a thorough search of the neighborhood. Nothing could be seen of the two men.

Young Harrington was able to furnish an excellent description of one of the men, whom he described as being five feet tall, dressed in a black derby and short brown overcoat with light stripes. The man's nose was peculiar, being flat as if smashed at one time. The boy was unable to describe the other man, as he had remained at some distance in the rear.
